The Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Week of July 12, 2015

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK...

A number of people have sought me out to comment on the way “people dress for Mass.” I have told them that, in my opinion, the people at Saint Monica overwhelmingly dress appropriately and tastefully (I have seen, first-hand, the alternative!). Nevertheless, Bishop Joseph Tobin from the Diocese of Providence, RI has some good words on this topic that bear repeating:

After attending Sunday Mass in Florida not too long ago I came across the following admonition in the Sunday bulletin: “Please come to Mass early enough not to disrupt. Leave late enough not to insult. (The Mass does not end until the final blessing). Worship reverently enough not to distract. And dress proudly enough not to offend.” Now that little blurb contains some very useful reminders,” I said to myself. It addresses a recurring problem in some our churches these days – an habitual lack of reverence for the sacred mysteries taking place in our midst, especially when the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is being offered.

While all of the points in the bulletin article have merit and should be observed, the reminder to “dress proudly enough not to offend,” might be the most relevant, especially now as we enter the hot and humid, casual days of summer. The sloppy and even offensive way “some” people dress while attending Mass is something I’ve witnessed personally and regularly receive complaints about. You know what I’m talking about; you’ve seen it too. “Hirsute flabmeisters” spreading out in the pew, wearing wrinkled, very-short shorts and garish, unbuttoned shirts; mature women with skimpy clothes that reveal way too much, slogging up the aisle accompanied by the flap-flap-flap of their flip-flops; hyperactive gum-chewing kids with messy hair and dirty hands, checking their iPhones and annoying everyone within earshot or eyesight. These displays reveal a gross misunderstanding of the sacred space we’ve entered in the church and the truly sacred drama taking place in our midst. C’mon – even in the summer, a church is a church, not a beach or a pool deck.

Every member of the worshipping community should dress appropriately (Cont’d on Pg. 4)

FROM the OFFICE of RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The 2015 Summer Session came to a close on July 1st, following 8 days of faith-sharing, friendship, and fun. It was another memorable Summer Session for the 50+ students and 7 teachers. Lessons about the Holy Family and the gift of families were incorporated into this year's curriculum, in harmony with the upcoming World Meeting of Families in September. The faculty, students, and parents performed a Corporal Work of Mercy via the "Families for Families" food drive. The generous donations of peanut butter and tuna fish were given to the Saint Gabriel Food Cupboard in Philadelphia.

We look forward to offering the 4th annual Religious Education Summer Program next year to the rising 1st, 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students beginning on June 20 through June 29, 2016.

WORLD MEETING OF FAMILIES PRAYER - Philadelphia 2015

*God and Father of us all,
in Jesus, your Son and our Savior,
you have made us your sons and daughters
in the family of the Church.*

May your grace and love help our families in every part of the world be united to one another in fidelity to the Gospel.

*May the example of the Holy Family, with the aid of your Holy Spirit, guide all families, especially those most troubled, to be homes of communion and prayer and to always seek your truth and live in your love.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.*

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, pray for us!

Getting Involved for 2015-2016

Ah, summer. The time to wind down and relax. You might be anticipating becoming involved here at Saint Monica's when everything picks back up again in the Fall? Do you have an interest in music, a talent, a passion for singing, or play an instrument? Give some consideration to joining the Music Ministry of our Parish. We are now accepting new members for the Parish Choir! Rehearsals begin again on Wednesday, September 9th. If you'd like more information, please don't hesitate to contact me at forman@saintmonicachurch.org or give me a call at 610.644.0110 ext. 118. A very simple audition is all that's required. Consider getting involved in this very special ministry. All are welcome.

Flowers on the Altar for the Summer

We're very grateful to Mrs. Clare Prendergast who has graciously donated the altar flowers that adorn the high altar throughout these summer months. She has elected to do this in memory of her beloved husband, Jack. Thank you, Clare, for your kindness to the Parish!

A Summer Session Presentation of PRIEST, PROPHET, KING

Fr. Robert Barron

A DEEP, BIBLICAL LOOK AT JESUS CHRIST

The better we understand Jesus, the better we understand ourselves. But who was Jesus, this itinerant preacher whom many called the Messiah?

In Priest, Prophet, King, you'll discover Jesus as the Anointed One—the ultimate priest, prophet, and king foreshadowed throughout the Hebrew Scriptures. Using biblical insights and engaging stories, Father Barron affirms that we see Jesus most clearly through the lens of the Old Testament.

Through this deeply biblical DVD program, you will better understand Jesus, become more familiar with Scripture, and realize your own priestly, prophetic, and kingly mission, received when you were baptized “into Christ.” Please join us, as we continue our faith journey with Father Barron.

When: Tuesdays – July 14, 21, 28

Time: 7:00 pm – 8:30 pm

Where: Saint Monica Education Center (Old school building 2nd floor Youth Room)

Facilitators: Maureen Friedrich & Maurita Buhsmer

Please contact Mary Perillo for more information or to register: mkperillo@verizon.net

NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK...

for Mass, but the obligation is even greater for those who fulfill public ministries during the liturgy – ushers, lectors, servers, and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion. Because they've assumed a public role in the sacred liturgy and are in the public eye, it's important that they give good example to others in the way they dress, speak and present themselves during Mass.

And what about the trend I've seen increasingly in recent years, even in our cathedral, of people coming to Mass carrying their water bottles and coffee mugs? Do they really need to be hydrated or caffeinated during that hour they're in church? Is it a sacred space or an airport terminal? And I wonder how many people even think about the Eucharistic fast (one hour before receiving Holy Communion) when they prepare for Mass? I'm old enough to remember when you couldn't have any food or beverage, except water, from midnight before receiving Holy Communion. It was a sacrifice, to be sure, but also a clear reminder of how special it was to receive Holy Communion.

And while I'm venting, I still find it inappropriate and disrespectful to have a church full of people talking and creating a boisterous atmosphere before Mass, completely ignorant of the presence of the Blessed Sacrament and the spiritual needs of their fellow parishioners who wish to spend a few moments of quiet prayer with the Lord. The Church should always provide a sanctuary of quiet, peace and prayer for anyone who wants to escape the barrage of noise and technological intrusions of our daily routine and enter into the presence of the Living God.

No moment reveals our attitude of respect more than during the actual reception of Holy Communion. I'm not one who has a strong preference for receiving Holy Communion standing or kneeling – both are approved by the Church and both can be either reverent or irreverent depending on the disposition of the person. Nor am I one who will fight over the merits of receiving Holy Communion in the hand or on the tongue. Again, both are approved by the Church and can be either reverent or irreverent. I am frequently amazed, however, over how many of the faithful, young and old, simply don't know how to receive Holy Communion properly. This ignorance reached its pinnacle a couple of years ago when one lady, a Confirmation sponsor in fact, dropped the sacred host

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK...

I had placed in her hand and then looked at me, giggling, saying, "I guess I'll need another one of those," like she had just lost her favorite snack cracker. It's easy folks, really. As you approach the minister of Holy Communion you bow reverently and when you hear the words, "the Body of Christ," you simply respond "Amen" as you extend both hands carefully or put out your tongue. And note, you're required to consume the host then and there and not take it with you down the aisle or back to your pew.

"Let The Whole Tremble" is a statement about the Eucharist taken from a letter of St. Francis of Assisi to his friars, in which he reveals his profound respect for the Holy Eucharist. He writes: "Let the entire man be seized with fear; let the whole world tremble; let heaven exult when Christ, the Son of the Living God, is on the altar in the hands of the priest. O humble sublimity! O sublime humility! That the Lord of the universe, God and Son of God, so humbles himself that for our salvation he hides himself under a morsel of bread." Would that we might display even a fraction of that reverence when we go to church, attend Mass and receive the Holy Eucharist, the Body and Blood of Christ!

LIFE IS BEAUTIFUL

Pope Francis made a poignant commentary about the sanctity of life in his message for the World Day of the Sick 2015, reminding the world that life is always worth living, regardless of the perceived "quality" of it.

The Pope tells us that "even when illness, loneliness and inability make it hard for us to reach out to others, the experience of suffering can become a privileged means of transmitting grace." Therefore "people immersed in the mystery of suffering and pain, when they accept these in faith, can themselves become living witnesses of a faith capable of embracing suffering, even without being able to understand its full meaning." - from Vatican Insider
